

The KALIDASA: The Literary Club

Introduction:

Encompassing the spirit of providing students with opportunities for developing their elocutionary and writing skills, the Literary club shall include activities such as Creative writing (Poetry writing, short story writing, Script writing, Debating, Declamation etc. Extempore, Elocution, anchoring in addition to other literary activities to promote Critical thinking. The club shall orient on developing the writing skills of the students through creative workshops, writing competitions, book review writing competitions, short story writing competitions, etc. to give wings to their imaginative and innovative skills and improve their professional and interpersonal skills.

Objectives:

- To promote a plethora of literary activities in the University
- To enhance confidence of students and prepare them for future challenges.
- To create a platform for debates and discussions.
- To hone writing, reading and critical thinking skills.

Faculty incharge:

- (i) Dr. Kiran Shekhawat, SGE
- (ii) Mr. Shankar Singh, SHPS
- (iii) Mr. Sumit Gaur, SCS

Office Bearers:

- (i) Mr. Mahendra Sharma, SWS 5th Sem
- (ii) Tara Kumawat, SCS 5th Sem
- (iii) Manisha Prajapat, SCS 5th Sem
- (iv) Govind, SCS 5th Sem