

FACULTY OF GENERAL EDUCATION

Job Title:

Assistant Professor

Reporting to:

Dean/In charge, Faculty of General Education

Brief of Job Profile:

An Assistant Professor in the Faculty of General Education at Bhartiya Skill Development University (BSDU) plays a vital role in developing students' personal, professional, and social competencies. The role includes developing and delivering interdisciplinary, competence-based modules that integrate language and communication with society-related topics covering multiple aspects such as culture, identity & socialization, law, ethics, ecology, politics, technology and economy. The Assistant Professor is required to contribute through action-oriented teaching in alignment with BSDU's Swiss-dual system of Vocational Education promoting real-life application, critical thinking, social engagement, and communication proficiency among undergraduate vocational students.

Roles and Responsibilities:

Teaching:

- Deliver interdisciplinary modules of General Education as part of BSDU's diverse skilling curriculum.
- Integrate language learning with real-world societal themes.
- Develop learner-centric lesson plans.
- Engage students in participatory learning methods.
- Prepare and evaluate assessments.

Curriculum Development:

- Contribute towards preparing the General Education curriculum by developing competence-based modules integrating Societal themes and Language & Communication.

Research and Publications:

- Undertake interdisciplinary research aligned with general education and publish in reputed journals.

Advising and Mentoring:

- Provide academic and personal guidance to students.
- Support students in applying FGE concepts in real life.

Administrative Responsibilities:

- Participate in University Committees and Quality Assurance Cell.

Professional Development:

- Engage in upskilling trainings related to ELT, Pedagogy & Didactics and Digital tools.

Professional Ethics:

- Uphold BSDU's code of conduct and demonstrate academic integrity.

Minimum Eligibility Criteria:

-  Minimum qualification of Master's degree in the Humanities/ Social Sciences (in disciplines such as Literature, Sociology, History, Political Science, Management, Commerce, Law, etc.)
-  Ph.D. in the mentioned disciplines is preferable.
-  Minimum 2 years of teaching experience at university level preferable.

Key Competencies requirements:

-  Interdisciplinary Insight: Connect language, culture, ethics, identity, and more into cohesive modules.
-  Pedagogical Innovation: Experience in student-centered teaching.
-  Language Proficiency: Fluent in English; able to teach and assess using CEFR levels.
-  Curriculum Design: Skilled in creating inter-disciplinary modules.
-  Communication Skills: Capable of engaging diverse learners.
-  Assessment and Evaluation: Skilled in developing integrated assessments.
-  Research Orientation: Capable of contributing to interdisciplinary publications.
-  Mentoring: Able to guide students' holistic development.
-  Digital Literacy: Proficient in using ICT for teaching.